

From sarpanch to 5-time Chief Minister

Badal remained a foot soldier all his life | Knew party workers by their first name

JUPINDERJIT SINGH
TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

CHANDIGARH, APRIL 25
Shiromani Akali Dal patriarch Parkash Singh Badal (December 8, 1927-April 25, 2023) nurtured the ambition to become a patwari in his young days but went on to become the Chief Minister of Punjab five times. He was considered to be the consensus candidate for the post of Vice-President of India in 2012.

His death after a brief illness at a private hospital in Mohali ended an era of politics where he had a role to play in almost every movement and decision in the post-Independence Punjab. He spent more than 17 years in jail because of several movements he participated in. Prime Minister Narendra Modi had once called him Nelson Mandela of India.

Badal started as a foot soldier and led every morcha (agitation) he participated in and remained a foot soldier all his life. He would often surprise party workers and others also in remote villages by calling them from their first names. Badal popularised Sangat Darshan, a public outreach programme which many other political parties tried to emulate. Polite to a fault, Badal used to call police and civil officials as early as 5:30 am regarding some news he had read in that day's paper.

Badal never retired from public life and would often tell young leaders to remain in touch with rival politicians or those who were sidelined. "In politics, you never know who will teach you," he would often say. He was a moderate voice during the days of terrorism and insisted on communal harmony as the fulcrum of his politics.

He was instrumental in evolving the Shiromani Akali Dal as a party for all communities on the Punjab, Punjabi and Punjabiyan model instead of just the party of Sikhs and Sikh issues.

Starting his political career as a sarpanch of his village in 1952, Badal became the youngest Chief Minister at the age of 43 in 1970. He also held the record of being the oldest Chief Minister in 2012.

He was also the only Chief Minister of Punjab who won back-to-back Assembly elections in 2007 and 2012. It was unprecedented in Punjab, a state known for electing the alternative party each time. Badal served as the Chief Minister for five terms 1970-71, 1977-80, 1997-2002, 2007-12, and 2012-17. Always considered winning horse, Badal lost the last election of his life in 2022 when Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) leader Gurmeet Singh Khuddian defeated him. He launched several schemes in the state, including the atta-dal scheme, free power to farmers, old age pension and others. At the same time, he was in the forefront of the movement against sharing of Punjab's river water with other states. He led many morchas, including the movement for Punjabi Suba (statehood), was imprisoned during the Emergency, the Satluj-Yamuna link canal and many others.

Cops who helped dismissed Inspector still to be named

JUPINDERJIT SINGH

CHANDIGARH, APRIL 25
Despite many claims, no one is inquiring into the role of police officials, other than dismissed Assistant Inspector General (AIG) Raj Jit Singh, for allegedly helping the dismissed Inspector Inderjit Singh in getting out-of-turn promotions, commendation certificates and relief in departmental inquiries in his 21 years of service.

Chief Minister Bhagwant Mann had on April 15 tasked DGP Gaurav Yadav with a four-point investigation on the police-drug mafia nexus after the Inderjit-Raj Jit complicity came to the fore.

The first of the four points was to name Raj Jit as co-accused in the June 2017 FIR against Inderjit. This was promptly done with Raj Jit being named in the FIR.

The second was to depute a senior officer and examine within a month the role of all police officers concerned, however, highly placed he may be, who have directly or indirectly helped drug traffickers. Gaurav Yadav appointed ADGP RK Jaiswal as the investigating officer.

The third point of the CM's directions said, "It is not possible for a low-rank Inspector to run such a huge network of extortion and drug trafficking alone. Action should be taken against the senior officers, who approved/transfers/promotions/grant of local rank to Inderjit Singh on the recommendations of Raj Jit Singh."

IG, Headquarters, Dr Sukhchain Singh submitted a report on this point. He reported that former

BALL IN CM'S COURT

- Inderjit Singh had joined the police service in 1986 as a constable
- He received 77 commendation certificates and a gallantry medal
- As many as 14 departmental inquiries were ordered against him
- He had been censured five times and one year of approved service had also been forfeited
- But the details of the officers, who gave him rewards or helped in inquiries, are not coming up in any investigation
- The ball is now in the Chief Minister Bhagwant Mann's court

DGP Sumedh Saini had approved, verbally, then Hoshiarpur SSP Raj Jit's request to transfer Inspector Inderjit Singh from Tarn Taran to Hoshiarpur on August 12, 2014.

The IG also submits in the report that then DGP Saini had also approved Inderjit's out-of-turn promotion from Head Constable to ASI on the recommendation of Raj Jit Singh on July 7, 2014 (a month earlier), when Raj Jit was posted as SSP Tarn Taran.

The fourth point of investigation sought by the Chief Minister said, "Please report whether any other SSP/IPS officer had requested for posting of Inderjit with him. IG Sukhchain, deputed to reply on this also, submitted a NIL report saying, "As per office record, no officer other than Raj Jit Singh had requested for posting of Inderjit with him."

As the third and fourth point of investigation asks only about Raj Jit's recommendations, the DGP office has not looked into the role of other officers. Inderjit had joined the police service in 1986 as a constable. He received 77 commendation certificates and a gallantry medal.

Also, 14 departmental inquiries were ordered against him.

He had been censured five times and one year of approved service had also been forfeited.

But the details of the officers, who gave him rewards or helped in inquiries, are not coming up in any investigation. Gaurav Yadav and Sukhchain Singh, when asked by The Tribune, said they had submitted their reports strictly as per the queries put to them by the Home Department, which asked them only about the recommendations by Raj Jit.

The ball is now in the court of Chief Minister Bhagwant Mann on whether he widens the investigation to inquire into all service record of Inderjit or limits the investigation as per the reports submitted so far.

18 FIRs at Anandpur Sahib for illegal mining in 3 months

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

ANANDPUR SAHIB, APRIL 25
Cabinet Minister and local MLA Harjot Singh Bains said in order to rein in the mining mafia, 18 cases had been registered against those accused of illegal mining in Anandpur Sahib in first quarter of the current year.

Bains, who was here to attend a joint meeting of the mining and police administration, said illegal mining would not be tolerated under any circumstances.

Challans had been submitted to the court in 13 cases, he said. The court had imposed a fine of Rs 25 lakh in these cases.

Apart from this, 37,484 metric tonnes of sand has also been seized. The state government had earned a tax income of Rs 7.76 crore from minerals brought from other states in three months, said the minister.

In CM Mann's constituency, potholes surface on new road

PARVESH SHARMA

SANGRUR, APRIL 25
Potholes dot the newly constructed Rangia-Kumbharwal road in Dhuri. The stretch was constructed at the cost of Rs 70 lakh in September 2022. Since it's CM's constituency, Deputy Commissioner Jitendra Jorwal along with other senior officials inspected the road on Tuesday and ordered an inquiry.

"Contractors are still working like they used to do earlier. They are using poor quality material. The road was constructed some months ago, but it has developed cracks and potholes at some places. The contractor and officers concerned will face action," said Dr Anwar Bhasaur, senior AAP leader from Dhuri.

After seeing the potholes on the road, area residents approached the Dhuri office of CM Bhagwant Mann and demanded quick action. Acting swiftly, AAP leaders contacted the Sangrur DC and other officials. Some senior officials of the Panchayat Department said the department got the road after allotting a tender to a private contractor.

"The total budget for the 3-km road was Rs 70 lakh. In the first 1.5-km stretch, there is no problem while in the remaining portion, there are some potholes. We will get the road repaired," said XEN Ranjit Shergill.

SGPC panel to probe 'conversion' of gurdwara in Arunachal Pradesh

AMRITSAR, APRIL 25
Taking cognisance of the alleged conversion of a historical shrine associated with Guru Nanak Dev, the SGPC has announced to send its delegation to Arunachal Pradesh to gauge the ground situation. It was learnt that the historic Gurdwara Guru Nanak Tapasthan at Mechuka (AP) was being converted into a Buddhist shrine. The SGPC said the delegation would visit Mechuka to take stock of the current situation and discuss the matter with the AP government. — TNS

Supplementary challan filed in Kotkapura firing

FARIDKOT, APRIL 25

The special investigation team (SIT) probing the police firing incident of October 2015 at Kotkapura today filed a supplementary chargesheet (challan) along with the state Home Department sanction to prosecute all accused in two criminal cases in the court of the Judicial Magistrate First Class (JMFC), Faridkot.

The accused in these cases include former Punjab Chief Minister Parkash Singh Badal, his son and SAD (B) chief Sukhbir Singh Badal and former DGP Sumedh Singh Saini.

Earlier, a chargesheet in these cases, indicting the Badals and six police officers, was filed by the SIT on February 24. In the supplementary chargesheet, other than the state government's sanction to prosecute all accused in these cases, the SIT had submitted more evidence in the court, said Harjeet Singh, SSP Faridkot.

There are two criminal cases relating to the Kotkapura police firing incident in the aftermath of sacrilege incidents. The first case was registered by the Kotkapura police against some Sikh protesters

SIT also submits govt sanction to prosecute all accused

on October 14, 2015. Later, while all accused were given a clean chit in the case, four police officers, including the complainant SHO, were nominated as accused in the case. The second FIR in the incident was lodged on August 7, 2018, on the basis of an investigation made by a judicial commission.

The JMFC today adjourned the case to May 16 for appearance of all accused. While granting its sanction to prosecute the accused, the state Home Department had submitted its detailed opinion on the basis of evidence, including forensic, collected by the SIT, said the SSP.

Other than the Badals and the former DGP, the other accused in these cases include suspended IGP Paramraj Singh Umranangal, former DIG Amar Singh Chahal, former SSP Charanjit Singh Sharma, former SSP Sukhmander Singh Mann and former Kotkapura SHO Gurdeep Singh Pandher. — TNS
